LEGISLATIVE GOSSIP. Some Interesting Stories of Indiana's

Lawmakers. Representative Edward S. Roberts, Jefferson county, will introduce in the House this morning a bill changing the time of holding court in Switzerland county so as to make two of the terms begin one week later than at present. The bill is backed by Judge Perry E. Bear, of the circuit composed of Jefferson and Switzerland counties, and by the sentiment of the entire Switzerland county bar. Its chief object is to prevent the Circuit Court and had not been advised that the warrants the commissioners' court from meeting on the same day. of Madison, Ind., was a visitor to the Sen-

Mr. Sulzer stands high in both legal and political circles in Madison, and his counsel is frequently sought by politicians. He has been tendered several positions of honor and profit by the administration at Washington, but insists that he is out of politics for good and means henceforth to buckle down to his law practice.

> Senator Stillwell made the rounds of his Democratic brethren in the Senate yesterday afternoon trying to persuade them to vote for his bill to keep live stock penned up under certain conditions. When he approached Senator Winfield and asked for his vote Judge Winfield looked at him with an air of mock austereness and said, "I don't see any sense in your bill." "Neither do I." retorted Senator Stillwell with a jaunty air, "but my rural constituents | funded has stimulated the sale. want it and so it must be passed." The United States District Attorney Albert W. Wishard, who is an ex-state senator, spent considerable time on the floor of the Senate yesterday afternoon. Several members of the minority suggested that Senator Wishard was around keeping his eye on the new congressional apportionment.

> "I remember a funny incident in the legal career of George W. Spahr," said Senator Kittinger yesterday afternoon. "Spahr represented a firm of hymn book publishers in a suit of theirs against the township trustee of one of these nearby counties. The publishers wanted to compel the trustee to supply the schools of his township with their hymn book. The case was venued to Madison county and old Judge Cravens was on the bench. Spahr offered one of the hymn books in evidence and, as a matter of form, read the preface. The opposing lawyer rose to his feet and said, 'Your Honor, I think if the gentleman is going to offer the book in evidence he ought to read the entire volume and not stop with the preface." The court sustained this contention and Spahr began to read the book. In those days they held court until nearly midnight. Well, there were several hundred pages of hymns in fine print in that book, and at 10 o'clock at night Spahr was not nearly through. All of a sudden he slammed the book shut with an angry emphasis and sald he would dismiss his case rather than read that blamed book any more."

xxx Senator Stillwell went to his home, Anderson, last night to remain the rest of the week. He will enter upon the trial of a lawsuit in that city this morning.

The House committee on corporations is about as hard working a committee as there is in either branch of the Legislature. Chairman Edward S. Roberts, of Jefferson county, is an indefatigable worker and his experience as a member of the House two years ago is of great value to him in the matter of expediting legislative business. No bills that are referred to this committee are held up. Mr. Roberts is also a keen observer, and keeps pretty close track of happenings on the floor of the House. He frequently delivers speeches for and against measures. and has a straightforward, forcible style of diction and oratory that carries great weight. Mr. Roberts belongs to the class of men popularly termed "self-made." He received much of his education in the intervals between arduous duties on a farm. Later he took a course in shorthand and business training and became a proficent court reporter. This was a natural stepping stone to the law, and a number of young attorneys have ambitions that lead them into the halls of the State Legisla-fore Wonders to Be Accomplished by Electricity, Prof. Slaby Says.

BERLIN, Jan. 30 .- Professor A. Slaby, of the Berlin Techniche-Hochschule, in the course of a remarkable interview on "The coming electrical revolution," which is to appear in the forthcoming number of new technical periodical, asserts that his recent invention, multiplex wireless telegraphy, will produce a very great transformation in existing methods. It will be possible, he declares, to apply the principle to submarine cables in such a way as to send hundreds and even thousands of messages simultaneously on the same wire, thus enormously cheapening rates. Professor Slaby believes the problem of direct production of electricity from coal will be solved. Germany, he predicts, will be the foremost nation of the twentieth century in technical production, and electricity will be the poor man's source of power and light. He is confident of the success of the electrical express locomotives now being constructed in Berlin for a speed of 200 kilometers an hour.

CHAFFEE MAY GO TO MANILA.

Probably Will Succeed MacArthur if the Latter Wishes to Come Home. WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.-It is stated at the War Department that neither of the general officers detailed yesterday, Wade and Ludlow, are sent out to Manila with a purpose of relieving General MacArthur. There has been no attempt to forecast the promotions in the regular army which will result in the passage of the pending army reorganization bill. When that bill becomes a law it will be entirely within the power of the President to designate the manner in which commissions shall be issued to the major generals created thereby. The first officer commissioned as major general, of course, by the rules of seniority, which still obtain, will become entitled to the command whenever he comes into contact with an officer of like grade. Thus, if the President wishes MacArthur to retain command in the Philippines, and that officer cares to remain after Wade's arrival, it will simply become necessary to allow MacArthur's commission as major general to antedate Wade's, and that will be done if MacArthur remains. But it has been understood for several months that MacArthur, having served quite as long in the tropics as is consistent with health and sound military practice, he is likely to come home in the late spring. By the same understanding General Chaffee has been assigned as his successor, and present indications afford no reason for a change in the belief that if MacArthur cares to come home—and that is left to his own choice-his natural successor will be General Chaffee.

Three hundred million Old Virginia Cheroots smoked this year. Ask your own dealer. Price, 3 for 5 cents.

The Philippine commission, through Judge Taft, has reported that its inability to confer any sort of a permanent franchise has paralyzed the development of the archi-pelago. The reported pressure from German financial interests was fully expected

PEACE IS AT HAND.

Warring Creek Warriors Have Not Warred, and the War Is Over.

HENRIETTA, I. T., Jan. 30.—Peace among the warring Creeks apparently has been reached, and all that remains to be done is to give Chitto Harjo, the chief Snake, who has caused all the trouble, a preliminary hearing and send him to Muskogee for trial for treason. In the meantime a few more of the minor leaders will Lieutenant Dixon probably will remain here a few days longer, until the last ves-Last night the Indians burned signal fires on the hills surrounding the town.
